gla 1 and gla 3 go back to the team

DA Botts

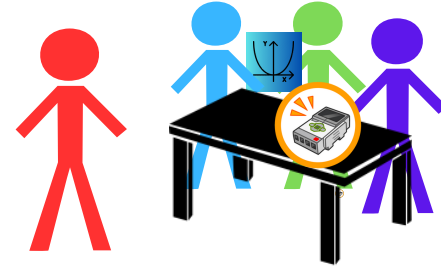

gla 5 shows the surveys

We asked a math expert to help us understand the data we collected.

87% of the people have never been on a robotics team.

After a few hours & 2 snacks later...

...they bring back prototypes.

I'll go show GLA2!

Hey, would you like to learn about robotics while playing Exploding Kittens?

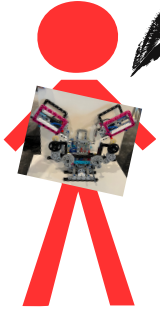

I think it's pretty cool, but would be even better if the robot sounds were louder, the card dealer isn't laggy and can you make the robot shuffle the deck?

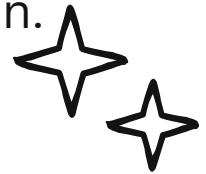

I'll see what the team says.

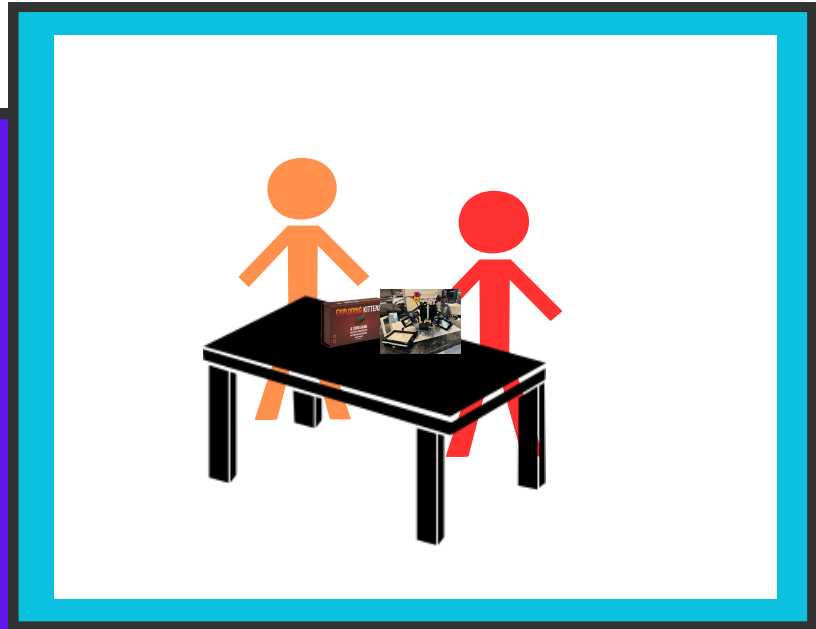

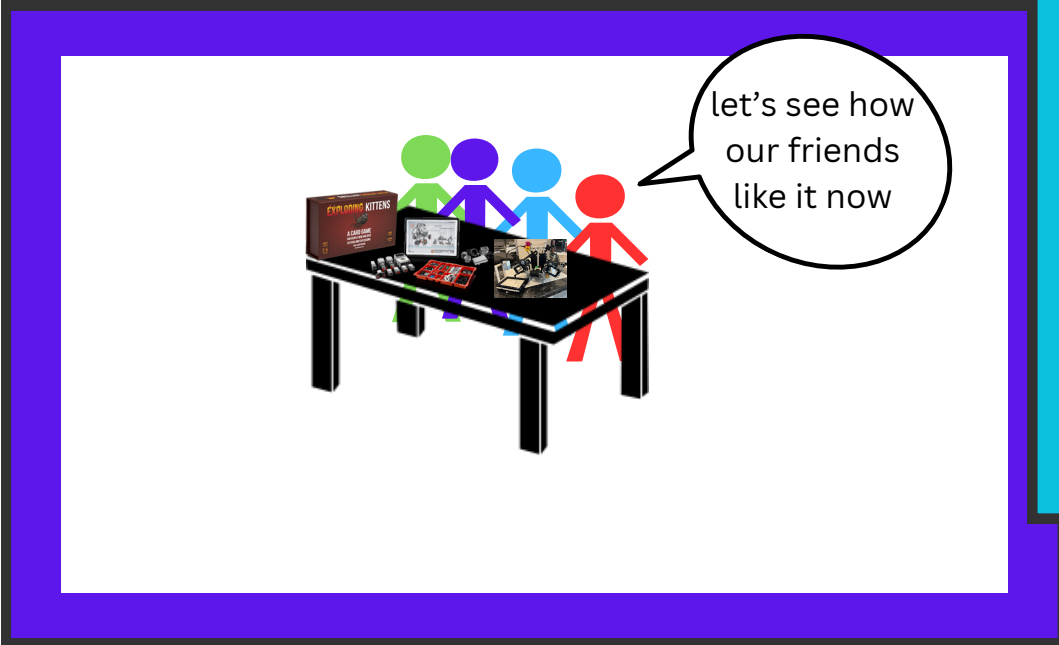

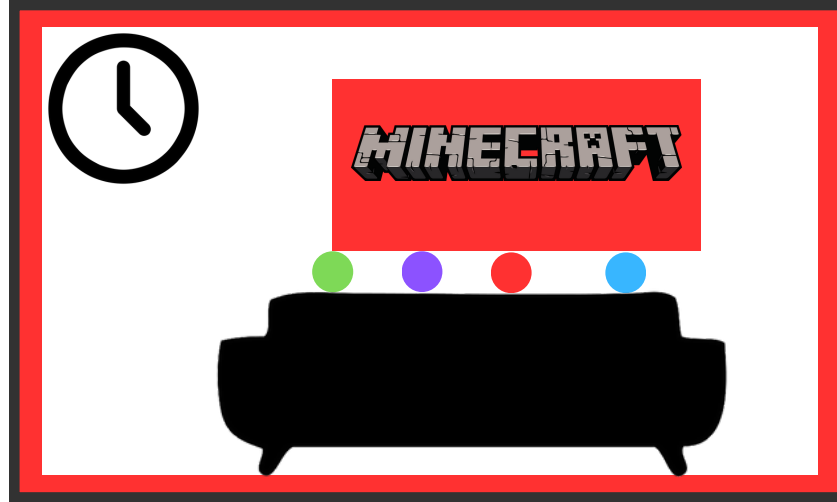

He said it would be even better if the robot sounds were louder, the card dealer isn't laggy and to make it shuffle.

they bring back prototypes again.

Wow! I didn't know how awesome robotics is. I want to have as much fun as Da Botts had this year. I can't wait to join a team next year.
